A name you can trust for Learning & Development

Who we are

We are learning enthusiasts with diverse corporate experiences who believe in true human potential for change. Continuous learning is what we are passionate about. We believe that impactful learning to right people at the right time will bring the desired change in lives.

With the objective of creating a unique platform of holistic Learning & Development to individuals Trinity Consultancy Services started its operations in 2012. The expertise of individuals in Trinity includes Human Resource Management, Project Management, Academic expertise, Sales & Marketing professionals, practitioners in Medical sciences and experts in Yoga, Music & Arts.

Our Aspirations

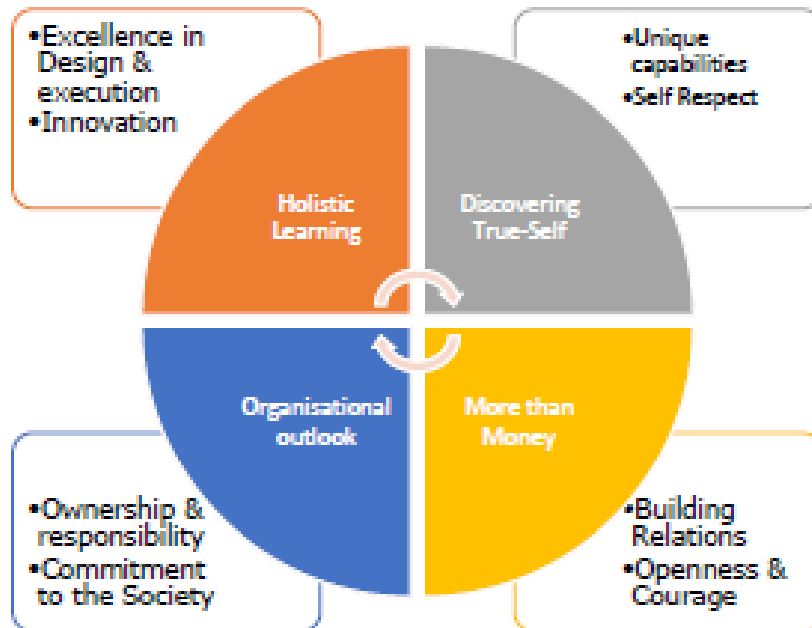

- To touch the lives of people enabling their holistic & value-added learning and inspiration to unleash the potential.
- To be a trusted learning & development partner and an integral part of the Organizational & Individual Development, in a global arena, to guide for refinement of behavioural attributes for personal success, sustained business & enhanced productivity.
- To ensure that learning is accessible to all individuals irrespective of geography, gender, societal status or ethnicity.

Our Values

We believe in holistic transformation with tangible improvements. We challenge ourselves everyday to Improve and innovate. We strive for continuous improvement to keep pace with the growing needs of customers, through our Personnel Development Programmes based on a continuous appraisal

Believing in the capabilities and capacities of each human being and respecting the uniqueness of the individual is more important for his/her development. When faced by a situation, we always say what we feel.

We commit and we deliver. We value the relationship with stakeholders clients and uphold morality, honesty and reliability as the core strength pillars. Champion always sets benchmark and competes against self.

We would love to partner with you not merely for the revenues, but to make a better world for tomorrow.

At Trinity, we show the courage to question anything and everything. We encourage our stakeholders also to be open with us. We don't claim to know everything and look forward to sharing knowledge and information.
